

EL SENDERO DEL AGUA

In the town of Trefacio, located in the region of Sanabria, is the Posada El Sendero del Agua, in a restored building maintains the typology of the traditional architecture of the area built with stone and wood and slate roof.

They say that the clocks stop when entering zamoranas regions of Sanabria and Carballeda. True, the minutes slow and nature becomes the sole owner of the passage of time, which seems to stop.

Maybe it's the charm of the lake, or ancient forests, real owners of the region, but the fact is that everyone who comes is a prisoner of the magic that holds this place.

From our inn we invite you to discover all the charm that holds Sanabria, where next to forgotten people and simple people, you will find fabulous natural spaces to get lost and enjoy.

El Sendero del Agua is an old farmhouse that has nine single, double and triple, with all services, lounges and common rooms, and exterior still run the waters of a brook to irrigate meadows and orchards, which gives its name to the Inn.

Our restaurant "El Cuelmo" a different space where you can enjoy a pleasant atmosphere are superb views and a result of careful selection, designed to satisfy the most discerning palates kitchen.

Our visitors can enjoy numerous outdoor activities in a unique setting. Browse our lake in a green boat, swim or enjoy a nice soak in the sun in all its different beaches, horseback riding, excursions to the most representative monuments of the area, hiking, fishing in the rivers, hunting on their hunting grounds , gather mushrooms in the forests ... you can guide us, so ... do not hesitate to consult! We also expect our Tavern.
